REMARKS

The arguments cited here will get [REDACTED] nowhere with a PRA application. Moreover, as far as I know, he has no ties in the States so this is a newly discovered ambition (stimulated no doubt by the fact [REDACTED] now has a Green Card).

He does however have family ties in England

through [REDACTED] relatives who live in Birming-for [] application, but I wonder if we should not caution him that unless he can make a very ~~strong~~ strong case, we feel FBIS ought not to put itself in the position of appearing to sponsor [] PRA application? There would be almost no way to do it, I expect, without bald-faced perjury.

It can be requested on the Basis only of Voluntary Service. its really up to each Ambassador how he wants to interpret Section 101 of the I+N Act. In any event its not easy. For the past 21 years only 1 Cypriot got this - the Ambassador's Driver FH — letters to Consul General in Shinjwa recommending PRA for FN's was very routine. Suggest we simply offer to ~~be~~ supply a letter.
